TWO YEAR CERTIFICATE IN ADLERIAN COUNSELLING SKILLS

The Intermediate and Advanced Certificates in the Theory of Individual Psychology and Adlerian Counselling Skills are accredited courses by ASIIP (Adlerian Society & Institute for Individual Psychology) which is an organizational member of BACP (British Association for Counsellors & Psychotherapists). The Intermediate Certificate provides 180 tutorial hours, and the Advanced Certificate provides 250 tutorial hours together with weekend workshops.

What it covers:

- Year 1 provides the basic introduction to Adler and the theory of Individual Psychology.
- Year 2 builds on year 1 and focusses on Adlerian Counselling skills. Students who satisfactorily complete 180 hours receive the Intermediate Certificate, and students completing 250 hours receive the Advanced Certificate. If students wish to progress onto the Diploma course, the Advanced Certificate is required at this entry point.

Useful for those who:

- There is no previous experience necessary, and this training is for those who may wish to use their new understanding and skills within their existing employment or within their community. This training offers the opportunity to consider starting out on a counselling career path

When and where:

- 2 year course commencing September 18th 2017
- Monday evenings from 7 – 10pm
- Barton Community Centre, Underhill Circus, Barton, Headington, Oxford, OX3 9LS
