About the workshop

This workshop is intended for those working in roles which may include providing therapeutic support to children or young people who are adopted or in foster care. Participants will have the opportunity to explore some of the specific issues related to working with adoption or fostering and reflect on the appropriateness or not of interventions. There will also be an opportunity to consider the legal framework connected to this type of work.

Please advise when you sign up of any particular topics related to the workshop title that you would like covered.

About the facilitator
